

PRICE ESCALATION GUIDELINE CHART

As of March 8, 2010

When calculating future prices, locate the month in which the fabrication will ship. Add percentage for that month only (noted below) to your current cost to derive future cost. Do not add the months together. You will need to do this for all fabrication categories that apply to your job.

P.I.E. indicates Price in Effect at time of order release. Contact the local plant for more information.
